Mrs. Ann Bennett

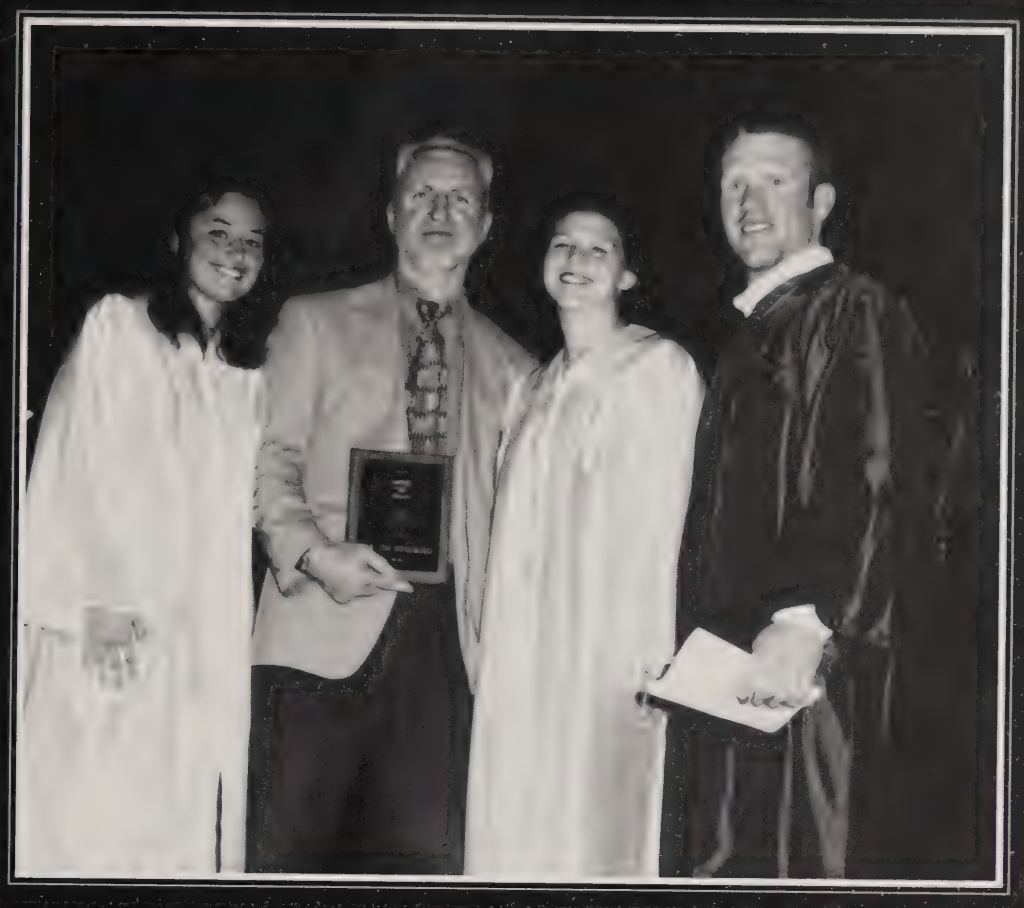
There are very few people that can honestly say that they've enjoyed their job for the past thirty-five years. However, one teacher here at Waltham High School has educated, helped, and contributed to the success of thousands of students in the Waltham school system for the past three and a half decades. This special person is Mrs. Ann Bennett.

Mrs. Bennett began teaching English soon after she graduated from the University of Massachusetts. Her career began at North junior high school. She soon transferred to Central junior high. Finally, she settled at Waltham High, where she spent the majority of her teaching career.

Mrs. Bennett has been a teacher, a colleague, a mentor, and a friend to so many people over her thirty-five years of service here at Waltham. Her beaming personality and outgoing attitude have been the most resounding traits that people remember about her. She has had a lasting impact on nearly everyone she's encountered. Her hard work has never gone unnoticed nor overlooked. For freshmen coming into the high school, things are bit intimidating and unfamiliar; but Mrs. Bennett has always been a friendly, familiar face to turn to.

With her well-deserved and undoubtedly earned retirement just weeks away, this seems to be a fitting end for a career like hers. Mrs. Bennett has dedicated her life to help eduacate the students of Waltham, and her glowing presence will be dearly missed. Now, in return for her relentless dedication to us, we, the class of 1998, dedicate this year's "Mirror" to Mrs. Ann Bennett.

Dedications



Mr. Jim Generoso

The 1998 Mirror would like to recognize a man who's hard work and dedication often go unnoticed. This unsung hero, like us, is a product of Waltham and Waltham High School. He captianed both the high school basketball and tennis teams, and is still regarded as one of the finest point guards in the history of Walthm High basketball. He received his undergraduate degree in economics from Harvard University, a masters degree in library education from Boston University, and a masters degree in library science from UCLA.

He is a man who believes in the value of good education and reflects this in his work. He has world traveled and feels that travel is the key to learning. Living in many countries including England, Italy, and Australia has helped him expand his knowledge. This avid learner once known as "General Jim" to his high school peers is now known as Mr. Generoso, that friendly face in the Media Center.

Mr. Generoso is always around to help students with research and reading selections, and somehow he also manages to know a little about everyone; he is never too busy to say, "Hello." The time and effort he puts forth with every endevor is appreciated by both staff and students at Waltham High. The class of 1998 would like to thank you, Mr. Generoso, for all you have given us. Your kindness is appreciated trememdously. People like you are rare these days and you are a role model for all. I think I speak for the whole class when I say that the library at college will not compare to the library at Waltham High because you will not be around to assist us. For this, we dedicate our yearbook to you.

Mirror

Pat Rudman

Thr first two members of the faculty that we would like to dedicate the 1998 yearbook to are two women who have made an outstanding impact on the lives of many seniors. Whether it be helping out with SAT forms, getting college information out on time, or just being someone to talk to, our two guidance secretaries, Ms. Rudman and Ms. Williams, have worked hard to make our high school careers much easier and more enjoyable.

Ms. Pat Rudman graduated from Cambridge Rindge and Latin high school in 1969. She graduated from Chamberlain College in 1971. One of her first jobs was being the secretary for the Department of Transportation in Cambridge. Through this job, she became the first woman and secretary, to go on a business trip with the Department of Transportation. She also attended the opening ceremonies and ribbon cutting at the green line; where she became the first woman to actually drive a green line car. She left the Department of Transportation in 1980 to start a family. She joined the Princess House in 1985 where she became the manager of sixteen saleswomen known as the "Rudman Rabbits." She left this job in the spring of 1994 and began working as secretary in the guidance department of Waltham high school that fall.

Sue Williams graduated from Waltham High School in 1974. From the high school, she enrolled into the army where she served her full term. She then married and began a family. They moved to Pennsylvania in 1982 and returned to Waltham in 1990. In 1992, she began working at Waltham high school in the special education department. During the 1993 school year, she transferred to the guidance department and has been working as there ever since.

As you can see, these two women have been making their mark for many years. For both women, their accomplishments are significant. We are sure they are proud of all they have achieved and we are especially proud to dedicate the 1998 Mirror to Ms. Rudman and Ms. Williams.

Charging the field

The 1997 Waltham Hawks finished off their strong season with a 6-4 record. The Hawks once again played a demanding Greater Boston League schedule, as well as in non-conference games against Xaverian and Brockton.

Head Coach Dan Keohane led the Hawks to a winning record and a respectable third place finish in the GBL. The squad was led on the field by the five captains Ryan Clifford, Donny Dirico, John Arone, Rich Sutherland and Jim Vittum. Seniors Jay Leary, Mike Izzo and Dennis Deveney made a big impact on the offensive line as they blocked for Terry O'Brien at tailback. Kevin Lyons successfully played both offensive and defensive ends. The defensive backfield of Howie Rock, Nick Egirous and Steve Schofield was key all season. Ray DiSchino performed in both offensive and defensive positions. Howie Rock took care of the Hawks' kicking duties.

The Waltham High Football Team would like to thank all of their coaches, especially Coach Keohane for taking them under his wing and giving them four great years of high school football. They leave the high school a satisfied class, proud of their achievements and happy with their senior year.

spirit

Go Hawks! The 1997 Football Cheerleading Squad had a memorable and successful season. The team was headed by co-captains Katie Fay and Erin Cormier and coached by Denise LeLieve. Amy McCue choregraphed their competition routine, which earned them prestigious honors. The squad entered two competitions and placed second in both of them. Seniors Kim Ashe and Lois D'Allesandro showed great leadership and commitment. The season was full of great times and wonderful memories. They had an impressive season, and everyone was thrilled with the accomplishments.

the crowd

The Marching Band had an impressive season. Their half-time shows rocked the stands and entertained the crowd during all football games. The shows consisted of the songs "Proud Mary," "I'll Be There," "Spinning Wheel" and "Rock N' Roll All Night." Aside from their halftime shows, they also participated in the Weymouth and Somerville Exhibitions.

The Marching Hawks were led by director Steven Barbas and Drum Majors Katie Cucchi and Brenda Mara. Senior Rob Velella added much to the band with his dedication and his skills on the sax.

The Marching Band would like to thank everyone who has supported them.

With an 11-4-1 GBL record, the boy's soccer team had its most successful season since 1982. Led by dedicated coach Peter Marini, countless seniors and some key underclassmen, the soccer team played extremely well. This very competitive team put a lot of pressure on their opponents, and played with a lot of skill and heart.

The team, led by captains Erik Granados, Jose Huerta and Shant Karian showed a lot of dedication and perseverance throughout the fall. The team was tested many times and always came up on top. One such incident occured mid-season. With five games remaining, the boys were told that if they received one more yellow card they would be disqualified from tournament play. The team played flawlessly, accumulating no yellow cards, and finished ninth seed going into the tournament. Waltham won the first game of the tournament, but lost to a strong North Andover team.

The soccer team graduates nine seniors, but with great coaching from Peter Marini, the team should be even more successful next year.

Hard work and determination were the key elements in the girl's volleyball team's successful season. They placed second in the league with a 12-8 record. The girl's qualified for the state tournament for the first time in four years.

The team was led by coach Loraine Bogasian and senior captain Amy Demeo. The team's seniors included Lisa Gemelli, Caitlin Kenney, Stacey Lefort, Nelzie Perez, Nadia Pierre-Francois and Jen Thomas. Juniors Andrea Stanton and Shannon Komow also contributed to the team's success.

They beat league power Cambridge early on but Cambridge came back late in the season to steal the GBL title from Waltham. Demeo, Gemelli and Kenney were recognized as GBL All-stars.

The team is graduating a strong group of seniors who will be greatly missed. The volleyball team should continue to be a league power with many juniors stepping up.

DOMINATING the field

As the Waltham High field hockey team opened their second varsity seaso ever, the News Tribune presented them with one question..."What will the do for an encore?"

Well...G.B.L. Champs was their response.

With the remarkable coaching ability of Denise Nugent and the leadership of senior co captains Jayna Napolitano and Caitlin Scott-DeLeskey, the Hawks were destined fo success. The girls went on to achieve an undefeated G.B.L. record 14-0-1 (15-3-overall) as well as the league title.

The Hawks offense was sparked by Napolitano, the leading scorer, an sophomore Billie Jean Dion. Sophomore Renee Gahan and junior Lis Lituri also provided strength up front. The midfield trio of Scott DeLeskey, junior Tracey Rautenberg and freshman Jacklyn Driscoll wa the backbone of the Hawks' impermeable defense. Seniors Amy Vautou and Maria Haley, as well as junior Lela Lituri, provided much neede strength and reliability in the back. To add to this strong defense wa junior goal tender Jill Annunciata. Annunciata was spectacular, be coming the league's number 2 goalie with fourteen shutouts.

The Hawks had many accomplishments this season. They bea Bishop Fenwick (1-0) for the first time in history. They also qualified fo the tournament and were seeded third in the North Division. They los in he first round to Framingham in a hard fought game.

Recognized as G.B.L. all-stars were Napolitano, Scott-DeLesky
Rautenberg, Annuniciata and Dion. Coach Nugent was awarded G.B.L
"Coach of the Year" in only her second varsity season.

The team will graduate Alana and Laura Connors, Haley, Napolitano, Scott Deleskey and Vautour. Their future is bright with many starters staying in place an some upcoming talent from the J.V. team. Without a doubt the 1997 field hockey team ha made a mark, and maybe even started a tradition.

Do it for the team! The girl's cross-country team finished their season with a 7-2 record, good enough for a second place finish in the G.B.L. The team was led by coach Kent Kales and senior co-captians Michele Doucet and Susy King.

Their team spirit was key in their success. There was a close knit group of seniors who led the varstiy team including Laura Headrick, Robin Leone, Jackie Mirabito, Kaitlin Nichols, Mary Parent and Jennifer Rizzo. Senior rookies Jill Barnes, Michelle Bernier, and Colleen McCarthy made a big impact with all three competing on the varsity squad. Junior Christy Aucoin, a consistent varsity scorer, was also a big part of the team's success. Barnes and Headrick were reconginzed as Greater Boston League All-Stars. The girls had two key wins against Somerville and Arlington. The team's greatest accomplishment came when it defeated rival Peabody in the league meet.

Although half the team will be graduating this year, the girls cross-country team will continue to be a league power next season. Several talented underclassmen are prepared step up to the challenge.

This year's cross-country team had a great season, showing up every day and giving it their all. Despite their losing record the team showed perseverance and pride in every meet. Co-captains Jarred Barnes and BJ Vallely led their team both on and off the course with leadership. They were able to keep the team full of high hopes and a promising attitude.

The team also turned to seniors Jomo Dillon, Meng Heang, Gino Lavini, Tim McMahon, TJ Washburn and Pete Wong. Juniors Cori Scafidi, Tom Gage and rookies Jim Biggins and Chris Brophy all contributed greatly to the team.

Although their 1-7 record may seem a bit dismal, the team had nothing to hang their heads about. Rain or shine, they were out in the woods training and preparing for the next race. Through the humidity of an early September day or the chilly October afternoons this group of young men did what they came to do - run.

The class of 1998 will graduate much of the cross-country team, but there are good things to come for this somewhat inexperienced crew. With Kent Hales at the helm and a promising group of underclassmen running, a winning season is definitely in this team's future.

The Waltham High golf team had a very productive and successful season. With a record of 8-1, they finished second in the G.B.L. They had an excellent season with only one tough loss to Cambridge, which kept them from the title. Senior co-captain Steven Douglas was exceptional at the number one spot. Douglas was undefeated all season and was named team MVP. At the number two spot co-captain John Fabiano came up big. Fabiano only lost once all season. Seniors Ronnie Hietsch, Tom Burke and Brett Hinckley all contributed enormously to the team. Underclassmen Andrew Alcorn (number 6 spot) and Jeff Czarnawski (number 7 spot) were also a big part of the team.

Overall the season was a true success. The players - as well as Coach Sorin enjoyed every minute of it. The team was one of the best ever seen by Waltham High. The outlook for next year's team is promising. Good luck to the future team and Coach Sorin.

The 1997-1998 Swimming and Diving team once again had an incredible season. This year's team won the regular season GBL crown by being undefeated and then went on to end their season by winning the GBL meet. Overall the Hawks ended their banner season with a record of 9 -2.

Most of this year's success can be attributed to the great coaching of Phil Richmond, Pam Penton, and diving coach Jim Robinshaw. They worked the team extremely hard but in the end, it all paid off. This year the Hawks were lead by senior tri-captains Jim Donovan, Alison Fox, and Phil Martin. All three proved to be great team leaders as well as vital to the team's success.

Although there were not many seniors on this years team they all still played a key role in the success. They include swimmer Leslie Gorman, and divers Sarah Koch and Erin Cormier. This year's Hawks divers had a huge impact on the team. Without their hard work and talent, the Hawks would not have been successful. Underclassmen who contributed greatly to this season include Kate Jackson, Tricia Lucente, Erin Fitzpatrick, Adam Lord, and Jason Vienneau.

During the course of the 97-98 season many records were broken. Senior Alison Fox broke the 100 fly, 100 back, and 200 IM records. The 400 free relay and 200 free relay records were also broken by the unstoppable quartet of Alison Fox, Kate Jackson, Tricia Lucente, and Erin Fitzpatric. The four girls along, with Phi Martin, Jim Donovan, Adam Lord, and Jason Vinneau, all qualified for the Eastern Mass sectional meet and swam very well. Alison, Kate, Tricia, Erin, and Adam then continued on and competed in the state meet and once again were all very successful. The six seniors graduating from the team will be greatly missed. However, the future looks good for the remaining swimmers and divers.

CIRCLE: GOOO LISA!!

The 1997-98 Girls' Basketball team finished its season with record of eight wins and ten losses. Their record is very misleading due to the fact that these ten games were lost a small margins.

The early part of the season proved discouraging with four losses in a row and only two victories. The Hawks, in the latte part of the season, desperately needed a win to boost morale a increase hopes toward a tournament seed. The victory over Everett proved to be the turning point of the season.

Some of the key performances contributing to the team's success were senior co-captains Christy Delaney and Lisa Geme juniors Laura Connors and Alex Sylvestre, and freshman starter Emily Ryan. Other noteworthy accomplishments were made by seniors Caitlin Kenney and Amy DeMeo, and junior Meghan Condon.

The seniors wish to express their gratitude to coaches Bob Connors and Denise Nugent for an enjoyable season. We would like to wish next year's team the best of luck and a successful season.

Two wins and two losses, that's exactly how the Hawks basketball season stood after four games. But thanks to a late season change led by seniors Mark Fratto, Kevin Lyons and co-captains Mike LaCava and Mauricio Duran, the Hawks narrowly missed post-season play finishing their season with a respectable 8-12 record. Under the influence and inspiration of Coach Joe Cacciatori, the Hawks saw its share of ups and downs. Being such a hardworking team, every player was always ready for each and every game. Other seniors, Tim McMahon, Nelson Class, and Joe Aiello also made substantial contributions to the Hawks' success. Despite the bittersweet end to the season, the Hawks were able to look back on their accomplishments with great pride and a tremendous sense of accomplishment. In the distance the events the boys were led by Washburn and Vallely. Underclassman Chris Brophy contributed in the two mile. In the sprints seniors Jomo Dillion and Clayton Ward led the way both being among the top sprinters in the league. The Hawks strength in the feild events was due to senior Richard Sutherland and junior Paul May's domination in the shot put and senior Gino Lavini and junior Tommy Maguire's skills in the high jump. Peter Wong was a strong hurdler, placing in the league meet and continuing on to state competition.

Cradling the ball

The girls lacrosse team celebrated its inaugural varsity season this year. They faced a tough season against teams with years of experience, as opposed to their single year of playing as a club team. Despite the lack of experience, Waltham came through with a 3-14 record.

Senior tri-captians Mackenzie Nurse, Jen Drew, and Liz Bruno, along with seniors Ami Finely, Rita Matta, and Rachel Young provided good leadership for the team. The Lady Hawks also had help from several underclassmen, including Andrea Stanton on defense and Michele Pereira and Liz Kenney on offense. Halfway through the season goal-keeper Michele McGinnis was forced to stop playing due to injuries and Emily Cappetta stepped in for the remainder of the season.

Although the Hawks were not faced with many oppurtunities to win, Coach Peter Marini motivated the girls to keep trying Even when confronted with teams who maintained leads of fifteen or more points, they never stopped fighting.

Charging to success

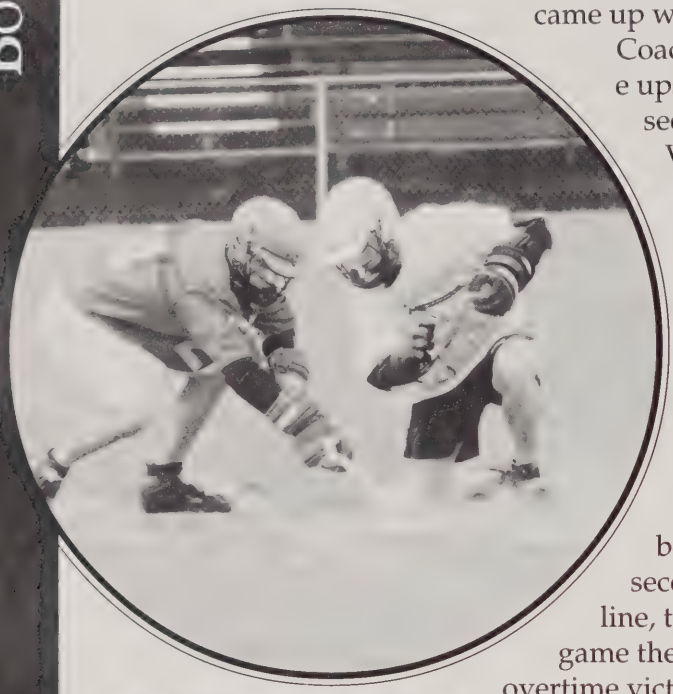
The record of 7-9 does not reflect the talent ot the 1998 Waltham La crosse Team. After opening with a huge victory to Weymouth, the Hawks struggled for a good portion of the season. Ultimately, they came up with a spetacular season finish.



Coach Duffy guided his team through th e ups and downs of the season. A tournament berth almost seemed a definite because the team returned captains Jim Vittum, Jim Ruggeri and Rich Sutherland for their fourth year of varsity. Seniors Rich Cincotta and Pat Condon completed this talented goal-scoring group. The offense was backed by Greg Tompkins, Gino Lavini, and Mike McMahon whom played exceptionally well. Junior goalie, Jason Doyle, complimented them. Juniors James Flynn, Jimmy Hayes, and first year senior Nick Egirous played well as defense midfield. Andrew Hogan, Andy Davis, Matt Fratto, and George Fox added an offensive threat. Freshman Nick DiDuca and Tom Ehwa also made a fine showing.

After beating Weymouth the Hawks rolled to a 3-0 record before losing 9-6 to Billerica, the top team in the state. In the second to last game of the season, with the tournament on the line, the Hawks lost in overtime to Lexington. In the team's final game they showed what they was really made of as they battled for an overtime victory against EMass power, Acton-Boxboro.

The record that the Hawks possesed does not show the ability they have. Good luck to Coach Duffy and the team's future.

The softball team had a strong season this year, finishing with a 1 record, and placing fourth in a competitive GBL. Seeded n going into the state tournament, the Hawks faced eighth ranked Lowell. It was a hard fought game, but Lowell prevailed, winn 1-0 after nine innings.

The Hawks fielded an experienced team, with six seniors and eight returning varsity players. The Hawks were lead the senior tri-captains, first baseman Lisa Gemelli, pitcher Colleen McCarthy, and catcher Caitlin Scott-Deleskey. Rounding out the senior laden team were shortshop Chri Delaney, second baseman Jayna Napolitan, and outfielde Jen Thomas. Other key players were left fielder Jill Annuciata, center fielder/pitcher Tracey Rautenberg, and third baseman JoJo McKenna. The only inexperienced one the field was first year coach Maureen Lavin, who made the coaching switch from Cambridge. The Hawks were also help by assistant coah Kim Boroyan.

The Hawks saw four players to the GBL All-Star team: Gemel McCarthy, Scott-Deleskey, and Delaney. Also, McCarthy, Scott-Deleskey, and Rautenberg were selected as News Tribune All-Stars, w Gemelli was News Tribune Player of the Year.

The Waltham High Baseball Hawks of 1998 had one of the best seasons in school history. Their final record was 16-7, with a Greater Boston League record of 12-4. This was highlighted by many superb victories, including a 10-8 victory over rival Peabody. The Hawks entered the tournament this year as the seventh seed, but they played like one of the top teams. They started the tournament by defeating Haverhill, 15-4, which was the Hawks first post-season win in a decade. After that, they upset second-seeded St. John's Prep of Danvers, winning 6-4. However, their season ended with a tough loss from the hands of Peabody, in which they lost 5-0 in the Division 1 North Sectional Semifinal game.

This year's team consisted of ten seniors: Jarred Barnes (P), Ryan Clifford (1B/P), Kevin Cosgrove (P), Donny Dirico (SS), Michael Dowdy (P/3B), Kevin Lyons (C), Tim McMahon (DH/1B), Terry O'Brien, Howie Rock (OF), and T.J. Washburn (2B). Each of these seniors played an important role towards the success of the team, and their absence will be felt in the years to come. Seniors Donny Dirico and Kevin Lyons and juniors Nick Seminara and Steve Kearney were named as Greater Boston League All-Stars. This season has been the most successful one for head coach Serge Clivio, and the seniors hope it will be the most memorable.

The girls tennis team finished their season with a 10-6 record. The team was lead by 4 strong seniors: Jana Dolnikova, Chantal Marsoubian, Mugdha Oak, and My Trinh.

First singles, Dolnikova, lead the team with a stunning 15-1 personal record, while Chantal gave an incredible performance as second singles. Oak and Trinh teamed up to become the super-duo in doubles, giving the team an added boost. Dolnikova's outstanding record earned a her a place in the Division 1 North Sectionals State Individuals Tournament. Her talent and skills carried her to the quarterfinal round.

As for the young stars on the team, sophomore Anastasiya Pilyavskyia suprised everyone with her numerous wins over seasoned players on opposing teams. Strong performances from Melissa Mariano and Vasiliki Marvroundhis also boost the team's outlook for next year.

The girls had a great time together. This will be a season to remember.

The Boy's Tennis Team finished the season with the solid record of 9-8. With this performance, the team entered the state tournament for its second straight year.

Many expected the team to falter after graduating of several key seniors last year. Under the leadership of coach Sinerate and the talent of senior Alex Fava, the team won many victories. Juniors Charlie Aresnault, Alex Chou, and Tom Gage added skill and composure. Their consistency on the court brought the team through many difficult matches. Underclassmen Chad Cooper, Boris Gokfeld, Vikram Oak, and Bryan Rautenberg brought prospects of future talent to the team.

The team worked hard to advance to the state tournament. The team will continue to improve and hopefully make another trip to the state finals.

Running to success

The Girl's Outdoor Track Team once again completed a successful season of running, jumping, and throwing. With a season record of 5-3, the team tied for third in the Greater Boston League.

This year's team was led by Head Coach Kent Hales, assistant coaches Roody Harold and C. Anthony Roane, and senior tri-captains Mary Parent, Sue Ryan, and Michelle Bernier. Also leading the team to victory was the large group of seniors including Amy Burnett, Jill Barnes, Michele Doucet, Kaitlin Nichols, Susy King, and Laura Headrick.

Not only did the team as a whole do well this season, but the girls also achieved individually. Several team members qualified for states, including Nichols, Bernier, Headrick, Barnes, sophomore Coleen Ward, the 4x100 and 4x400 relay teams.

Overall, the 1998 season turned out to be a winner for the girls outdoor track team. They all proved their worth and speed in the GBL and will undoubtedly continue to be successful in future seasons.

Outdoing the competition

The 1998 boy's outdoor track team had a tough year. Loosing many key performers from the previous year, Waltham was still able to perform well. Waltham finished 3-5 this year, losing every meet by less than ten points.

Despite it's record, the team had many bright spots. John Arone finished first in the GBL meet in the javelin with a 169' throw, the best throw in the league all year. Arone qualified for States along with Peter Wong, Clayton Ward, Paul May, Jason Gregory, Steve Schofield, and Stephan Legione. Great performances were given by seniors Joe Aiello, Eric Hallgren, Mike Izzo, Meng Heang, and Eliazar Salguero. Waltham's most memorable win came against Revere which was decided in the last event, the 4 X 400 relay.

With hard working underclassmen like Ian MacPherson, Jeb Boudreau, Tom Maguire, and many others, and the fine coaching staff of Coach Keohane, Roody Herald, Jim Galvin, and Ernie Glynn, the team should stay a force in the GBL.

Volleying for the point

The 1997-98 Boys Volleyball Team had an interesting 4-8 record. The two biggest wins of the year were against powerhouses, Cambridge and Newton South. With not a lot of height on the team, the Hawks relied purely on heart and pride. In only two years of existence they earned a lot of respect from both league players and coaches. Seniors on the team were captain Matt Collette, Mituel Patel, and Duong Tran. Collette was named to the Eastern Alliances first team and Patel was named to the Alliances second team. The key word for this season was hard work. Eliminated from the playoffs, the Hawks played for pride and respect alone. In just one year of coaching, Matt Goldberg accomplished and taught the team a lot. He was a great coach and helped the team gain respect in the league. Next year with contriubution from key underclassmen such as sophomore John Vautour, the team should continue to improve and hopefully become a league power.

DANCE THEATRE

Six weeks ago we all came together
To begin the show that we'll always remember
It's time to perform, give everyone a hug
Please don't forget to vacuum the rug!
Despite cheering, work, sports and life
We've all made it here, tonight is THE night
The songs of the show were a great mixture
And don't forget to pick up your baby picture
Gotta keep dancing came back with a bang
And groove me was never Marzy's thang
The bubbles from splish splash made dancing hard,
But we risked it and everyone remembered their water and triscuit
Tonight we're going to stomp and grind
And all my life touched our hearts and minds
Caution: Beware of the pit!
The streak finally ended, the show was a hit!
There is "no limit" to what this cast can do
Our firendship is strong and will always stay true
The christmas lights made the stage extra bright
In the circle of life Arthur was the hit of the night
Deb, what can we say, your love is strong and true
Your more than a director, you're a great friend too.
You are the mother of this extravaganza of dance
Your love and caring gave us our chance
Hold back the tears that well in your eyes
Seniors, the time is here, do it with pride
Someday we'll look back and we'll always remember
The good times we've had and the memories together
But for right now let's have a great show
Tonight is our night, Don't ever let go!!

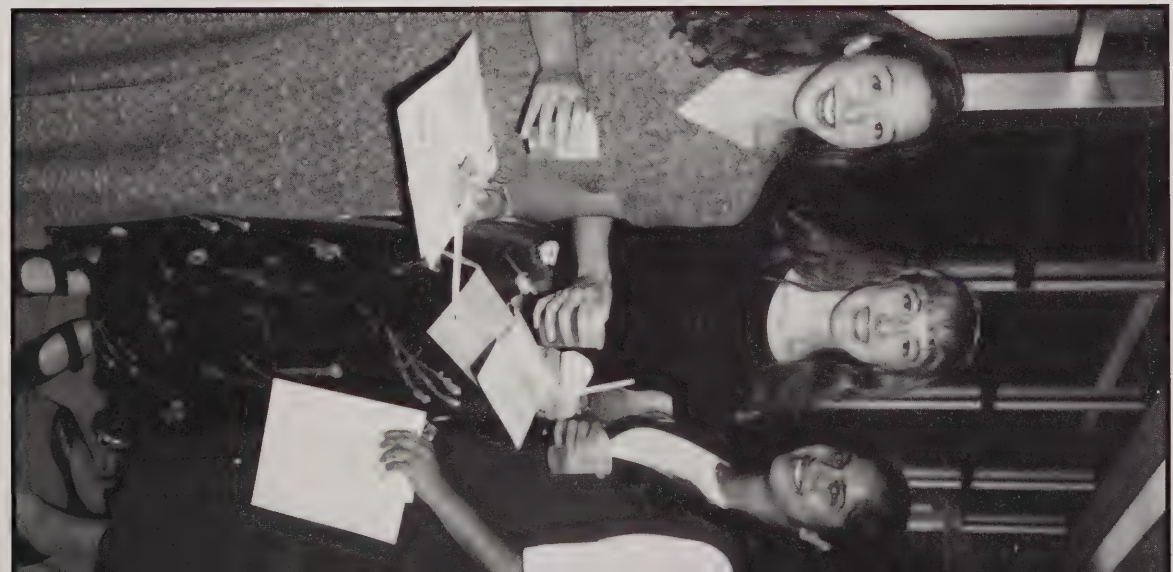
N.H.S. Induction



Traditionally, a scholar has been defined as a "learned or erudite person who has profound knoledge of a particular subject." But to me, schlarship signifies much more. True scholars seek knowledge for their own sake, and use their acquired skills and experiences to gain a better understanding of life.

As students, we see that we must have discipline, diligence, and the yearning to to realize our highest level of academic potential, in order to become true men and women of learning. Like scholars, we probe the mysterious unknown in search of truth. Our thirst for knowledge propel us to a higher level of understanding; heightening our awareness of the world around us.

Scholarship is the primary criterion for induction into the National Honor Society. Every student here embodies the nature of an amateur scholar. We demonstrate dedication, motivation, curiosity, and a desire to learn. It is these special qualities of scholarship that bind us together as the National Honor Society.

The great American philopsher, Morris Raphael Cohen once said, "It is the appreciation of beauty and truth, the striving for knoledge, which makes life worth living." As we take on new challenges in our quest for deeper understanding, the academic experiences we have gained in the last four years will serve as our foundation for the future.

FOUR THINGS TO LOOK FOR WHEN CHOOSING A COLLEGE.

☐ Qualified Professors ☐ Advanced Facilities

☐ A Pleasant Campus ☐ A Nearby Burger King®

Congratulations graduates! High school is history! So now it's time to choose a college. But be careful. Because no matter how great the campus, classrooms, or professors, you won't be able to enjoy your study breaks without a nearby Burger King®.
